Panel Discussion

How will data and technology drive the twin green and digital transition? Focus will be on the challenges society is facing (Environmental degradation, Climate change, Energy crisis, ...) and how digital technology can change the tide by facilitating the transition to a more sustainable society and green economy on local, national and EU level.

Panel members: Ewa Malz, Bruno Sanchez, Michael Lutz, Ilias Iakovidis (Adviser 'Digital aspects of green transition' at DG CONNECT, European Commission), Tomaž PETEK (General Manager, Geodetic Administration of the Republic of Slovenia).

Moderator:

Stefan Jensen (Head of Programme - Data and Information, European Environment Agency)
